

Postgraduate Courses

Updated 11/3/2005

Postgraduate Education Director: Keith Calligaro, MD; Philadelphia, PA

The SCVS postgraduate courses are including in the registration fee for all physicians.

Wednesday, March 8th, 11:00am – 12:30pm

Carotid Stenting: Challenging Cases and Technical Tips

- Objectives: Upon completion of the course, attendees will understand:
- High-risk situations when performing carotid artery balloon angioplasty and stenting,
 - The technique of performing carotid artery balloon angioplasty and stenting,
 - Bail out procedures and strategies to get out of trouble when performing balloon angioplasty and stenting.

Faculty: *Alan B. Lumsden, MD; Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, TX
Kim J. Hodgson, MD; SIU School of Medicine, Springfield, IL
Michael B. Silva, MD; Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland, OH*

Friday, March 10th 4:00pm – 5:30pm

Venous Office Practice: Why It Is Replacing Arterial Surgery!

- Objectives: Upon completion of the workshop, attendees will understand:
- Indications for and technique of sclerotherapy in the office setting,
 - Indications for and technique of saphenous vein ablation in the office setting,
 - Methods and strategies to establish a venous practice in the out-patient office setting.

“Office Endovenous Procedures: How to Make it Look Easy”
Paul McNeill, MD; Frederick, MD

“Other Office Venous Procedures: Phlebectomy, Sclerotherapy and More”
Jose Almeida, MD; Miami, FL

“How to Build a Venous Practice” Tips for Success”
Alan M. Dietzek, MD; Danbury, CT